

Speaker Feedback

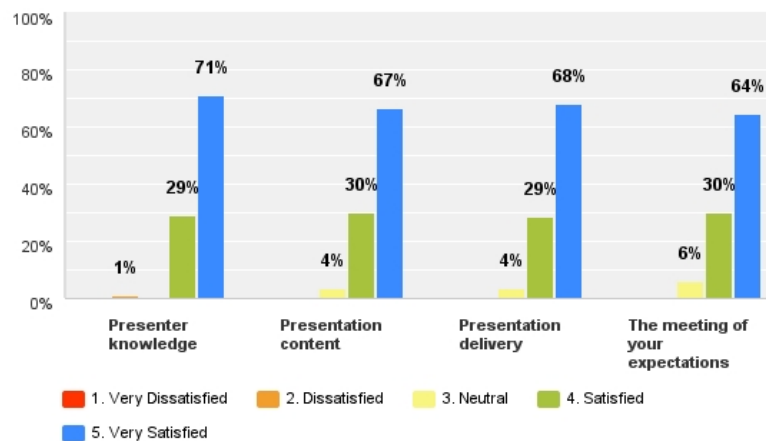

Speaker: Harold Jarche

Session: Keynote Address

Conference delegates were provided the opportunity to give feedback about all keynotes and concurrent workshops. The feedback received from delegates has been summarised below.

Please indicate your level of satisfaction with this Keynote Address:

Answered: 84 Skipped: 9

	Very Dissatisfied	Dissatisfied	Neutral	Satisfied	Very Satisfied	No. of responses
Presenter Knowledge	0% (0)	1% (1)	1% (1)	29% (24)	71% (59)	83
Presentation Content	0% (0)	0% (0)	4% (3)	30% (25)	67% (56)	84
Presentation Delivery	0% (0)	0% (0)	4% (3)	29% (24)	68% (57)	84
Meeting of Expectations	0% (0)	0% (0)	6% (5)	30% (25)	64% (54)	84

AITD comment:

Harold, you received a significant amount of positive feedback from delegates regarding your keynote address. Many delegates commented that it was thought-provoking, challenging, and even a bit 'scary'! Thank you again for presenting at our conference and we look forward to working with you again.

Delegate comments:

- What a refreshing presentation. I so enjoy watching a professional in action
- Great presentation -really challenged my thinking.
- I liked the way there was 20 minutes built in for questions, and he shared personal stories to support the learning.
- Fascinating man, articulate and passionate. I may not have agreed with his every thought, but he made you think!! Great presenter! Love it!!
- Scary but brilliant presentation much food for thought
- Exceptional level of knowledge. Champions his ideas. Engaging.
- Challenged my thinking and food for thought

Speaker Feedback

- Fantastic choice
- Overall satisfied. Couple of flat spots but a number of takeaways re what may be our future in L&D (according to Harold in 10-20 years it won't exist!)
- This was scary!
- Great presenter, interesting
- Gave me a lot to think about, challenged my thinking
- WOW - excellent presentation. Would have loved more time to consider what he said in a group and consider the impacts and application
- Very engaging
- Would like more answers. A lot of theory but the how would have been great.
- Great content and delivery
- Wasn't too sure how relevant this would be, and a very strategic and (semi) academic approach, but really prompted new thoughts and will give ideas to bring back.
- Great keynote
- Fantastic. You made me think about what really matters now.
- All good, very thought provoking
- Great enjoyable
- Very interesting concepts. An inspirational presentation
- Some thought provoking comments
- Harold was thought provoking and has given me a source of credibility in what I was trying to do.
- The best in simple way! Really enjoyed it
- Fantastic
- Very thought-provoking, paints a clearer picture of the future role of L&D. Thanks, great presso!
- More of this future-oriented stuff please
- Great, thought provoking challenging
- Thought provoking
- Relevance of communities of practice to socially provide discussions and solution sharing
- Harold rocks!
- Great!
- A very stimulating, thought-provoking session.
- Interesting topic and concepts raised enjoyed this!
- Again, inspirational start to the day - awesome. Enjoyed the challenge to the mind and the wide sources Harold drew on.
- Nice measured style
- Interesting presentation
- Challenging and thought provoking
- Brilliant
- Extremely knowledgeable
- Big ideas! It will take me a while to absorb some of this disorder thinking
- Ok - would have liked more detail it seemed to be rushed particularly given time available at the end for questions
- Excellent. Extremely interesting and engaging presenter.
- Brilliantly stimulating
- Engaging style. I'm not sure he answered the 'so what' question
- Harold had some great big ideas, but the translation to action and relevance to our/my work in L&D wasn't as clear. Very engaging presentation though.
- Big ideas that require some processing
- Brilliant, thought provoking, articulate
- Thought provoking and engaging